Our Christmas carols contain something of a seeming contradiction. Many of them are about the simplicity and joy and peace of this season, such as "Silent Night" and "Joy to the World". Many sing of the sweet babe born this night such as "Away in the Manger" or "What Child is this?". But beyond the simplicity, joy, peace, newborn King, angels, stars, and glorias, is the stark reality of salvation.

Salvation is non other than our experience of God's love, revealed in multiple ways, many of them unexpected and surprising. Always God acts to bring us to ever new life, from sending us the Son to dwell among us to sending us to announce God's presence and love to others
